

Query sentiments....

Introduction

1. Ask students to take one subjective important object from their satchel, their table....
2. Invite them to build groups with 4 students.
3. Each student tells about the „object“ a little story, why it is important.
4. Invite one member of the group to tell the story of another child.

