

Introduction

One social or academic goal for a week

1. preparation

Draw a train (one waggon for each day in the week) and attach it on the wall.

2. Agree one social or academic goal with the learners.

Notice it on a poster/board. It must remain visible throughout the week.

Remind the learners of this every morning.

3. reflexion

At the end of the day all learners are asked: How well did you do it? What was easy for you? What was hard?

A matching smiley face is added to the day of the week

The goal of the week:

Monday

Tuesday

Wednesday

Thursday

Friday

Introduction

reflection

1. preparation

Produce flashcards with the symbols you find below.

2. reflection

At the end of a lesson or a school day, ask learners some reflection questions. Give learners time to think about it and to decide.

Point to a symbol and ask who can assign here.

Allow some students to explain why they chose this symbol. Make sure they are concrete.

What did you understand well? Where do you need help?

3. important

If a learner needs help, you or another learner need to offer help the next day.

What did you understand very well?
Please explain it to all of

What was difficult for you?
